

Rhonda D. Holcomb is the Office Manager for The Design Office of Steve Neumann and Friends and has been with this firm since 2009. Previously, Rhonda was the Accountant at Heights Venture Architects, LLP and Office Manager for Mitchell Carlson Stone, Inc. for thirteen years.

Rhonda has over twenty years experience in office administration and financial management. Her many duties at SN&F is handling all the accounting functions, human resources, marketing, and assisting the principal of the firm.

Rhonda joined the SDA team as a member in August 2004, and immediately became involved by serving on the Audit Committee in 2005. Rhonda has served on the local SDA Houston Board both in 2006 and 2007 as Treasurer, 2008 as Vice President, 2009 as President, and currently serving as Immediate Past President. As President, Rhonda implemented the first Newsletter for the Chapter as one of her goals when becoming President. She has attended several Leadership Conferences and National Conventions in San Antonio, Boston, Alexandria, and Los Angeles. Rhonda feels, “SDA has been extremely valuable and has truly enhanced my career by allowing me the opportunity to network with many SDA professionals and reach beyond my comfort zones and continue new challenges. I have met many extraordinary individuals in this organization and made many friends.”

Outside of the professional arena, Rhonda keeps busy with a mixed family, her husband Bill of twenty five years, five children, and eight grandchildren. Her hobbies includes scrapbooking, reading, loves to travel, and spending time with her family.